Ennio Morricone and 100 Years of Cinema

In tribute to Oscar-winning composer Ennio Morricone, the Madrid Philharmonic Orchestra takes us on a journey through 100 years of cinema with music from some of the greatest films of all time.

A titan in the world of film music, the late Italian composer Ennio Morricone is the inspiration behind an afternoon of iconic scores – including his compositions for The Good, the Bad and the Ugly; Once Upon a Time in the West; Cinema Paradiso and The Untouchables – plus music from hits like Jurassic Park, Titanic, Schindler's List, Lord of the Rings and Star Wars.

Founded over 20 years ago, the Madrid Philharmonic Orchestra performs regularly at some of the most prestigious venues in Spain and has worked with celebrated musicians including Krystian Zimerman, Nicola Benedetti, Alexei Volodin, Boris Andrianov, Radovan Vlatkovic and Maxim Rysanov.
